

11

nev - er a mean — thought in their heads. "Don't," — she said,

f

15

"Don't for - get the trou - ble you've al - ways had with dogs and

sub. mp

f

18

cats." So I got one:

mf

21 freely, recitative a tempo

on-ly a lit-tle thing, fresh from the farm, freely, recitative (squeal) (squeal) a tempo

p p mf

23

ter - ri - fied, just weaned, a

(squealing)

p

25

squeal er.

ff pp

28 (mf)

Moth-er did - n't men - tion that. I'll grant you mf p

31

it was pret - ty smart. It could con - ju - gate the

mf

34

verb "to eat" all day and watched the news be -

37 freely, recitative

fore it went to bed my bed, that was—

freely, recitative

f

a tempo

while I slept on the floor. But brains, _____ a tempo (squeal) (squeal)

f

42 _____ brains— aren't— ev - 'ry-thing.

46 accel.

accel.
(squealing)

(the final squeal...)

p ff

7 8 10

49 a tempo

Smoked ham's the way to show some - one she

a tempo

52

should have told me more.

f